

Fine specimens: MCFA president Ismail Mohd Ali giving a briefing on cat breeds during the event.

Show of feline beauties

Cat festival at mall draws the crowds

THE Viva Home shopping centre drew crowds of feline fans recently for the Cat Festival 2012 (MCFA) held at the ground floor centre court.

The event themed "Love Inspiration for Hope and Happiness" mesmerised shoppers with an exciting showcase of more than 20 famous cat breeds from Malaysia and overseas.

Organised for the second time, the event provided an opportunity for owners of pedigree and household felines to show off their pets.

Enjoying the show alongside crowds of shoppers, Viva Home shopping mall general manager Kenny Chin said, "The MCFA Cat Festival 2012 is such a big hit with shoppers and we are thrilled to welcome this event again."

"A pet is such an integral part of a home and we are delighted to give shoppers the opportunity to learn more about responsible pet ownership and the appropriate care for their cats.

Shoppers and families cruising through the cat exhibition were able to enjoy a wide variety of pedigree cats including Savanah, Bengal, American Short Hair, American Curl, British Short Hair, Scottish Fold, Persian, Exotic Short Hair, Russian Blue, Maine Coon, Burmese,

In the spotlight: African wild cat Leptailurus Serval, Sejaticats Kworro.

Siamese and many more.

There was also a special appearance of the African wild cat Leptailurus Serval, Sejaticats Kworro.

Visitors also had the opportunity to participate in batik painting and colouring contests, as well as enjoy a spectacular fashion show featuring cat motifs and designs.

For details about activities at Viva Home shopping mall, visit <http://www.vivahome.com.my/> or Viva Home Facebook at www.facebook.com/vivahomekl