L.N. 234.

ANIMALS ORDINANCE, 1953

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 and 86 of the Animals Ordinance, 1953 [17 of 1953], the Minister of Agriculture hereby makes the following Rules:

Citation

1. These Rules may be cited as the Animals (In Transit) Rules, 1965.

Interpretation

2. (1) In these Rules unless the context otherwise requires-

“animals” means cattle, sheep, goats and other ruminating animals and includes horses and swine;

“prohibited country” means any country or part of any country not specified in the Schedule to these Rules.

(2) The expressions “master”, “officer of customs”, “ship” and “veterinary authority” shall have the same meaning assigned to them in the Animals Ordinance, 1953.

Duties of Masters of vessels carrying animals from or via a prohibited country

3. When an animal is brought in any ship into a port in the States of Malaya in transit-

(a) from a port in a prohibited country, or

(b) from a port in a country which is not prohibited country, but the ship since taking the animals on board has entered a port in any prohibited country,

the master-

(i) shall not remove or cause to removed such animal from such ship;

- (ii) shall not land or cause to be landed the fittings, fodder, litter and other things used for any such animal or the dung of such animal;
- (iii) shall not allow or permit any person other than a veterinary authority, an officer of customs, a Port Officer, and any person or persons actually engaged in tending the animals or cleansing the pens to enter any pen or other part of the ship in which such animal is kept, until the pen or other part of the ship has been cleansed and disinfected.

Persons leaving vessels in clean hands, etc.

4. Every person upon leaving that part of the ship in which such animal is or has recently been kept shall wash his hands with soap and water and disinfect his boots with disinfectant.

Pen, equipment and fitting to be cleansed at intervals

5. The master shall whilst such ship is in port with such animal on board cause that part of the ship where such animal is kept including all equipment and fittings therein to be cleansed and disinfected at intervals not exceeding 24 hours.
