L.N. 850.

THE ANIMALS ORDINANCE, 1953
(No. 17 of 1953)

IN exercise of the powers conferred upon him by sections 50A and 86 of the Animals Ordinance, 1953, the High Commissioner in Council hereby makes the following Rules:

1. These Rules may be cited as the Animals (Prevention of Cruelty) Rules, 1953, and shall come into force on the 1st day of January, 1954.

Citation and commencement

2. These Rules shall apply to the Municipality of George Town, and references in these Rules to the "President", "Councillors" or "Municipal Veterinary Surgeon" shall be construed as references to the President of the Council of the Municipality of George Town, the Municipal Councillors of George Town or the Veterinary Surgeon of the Municipality of George Town, as the case may be.

Application

3. No place shall be used for keeping in captivity any animal for sale, export or exhibition except under a licence in writing from the Councillors:

Animals not to be kept in captivity except under licence

Provided that a stall set aside for the sale of domestic birds intended for food within any public market shall be deemed to be duly licensed under these Rules.

Application for licence	4. Every application for a licence shall be in writing and be delivered to the Municipal Veterinary Surgeon. The Councillors, after the Municipal Veterinary Surgeon has inspected and reported on the place, may at their discretion issue a licence for such premises.
Fee	5. The fee for a licence issued under these Rules shall be five dollars.
Duration of licence	6. All licences issued under these Rules shall ordinarily expire on the 31st day of December of the year in which they are issued unless previously revoked: Provided that a licence may be granted for such shorter period as may be specially endorsed on the licence.
Particulars to be contained in licence	7. Every licence shall state the name of the licence holder, the situation of the licensed premises, and the date of issue and expiry, and shall be kept in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises.
Revocation or suspension of licence	8. A licence shall be liable to revocation or suspension if the licensee shall be convicted of an offence under the Ordinance or these Rules.
Licensed premises	9. Licensed premises shall be kept clean, properly lighted and ventilated, and in good repair, and there shall be an adequate supply of water.
Cages	10. Any cage or enclosure used for the keeping of any animal, other than domestic birds intended for sale for food, in captivity shall be large enough to allow the occupant or occupants to stand erect and to move freely within such cage or enclosure. Any cage or enclosure used for the keeping of domestic poultry for sale for food shall be large enough to allow the occupant or occupants to stand erect without discomfort or overcrowding. Domestic fowls, ducks, geese, turkeys, guinea fowls and other species of bird shall not be intermingled but shall be kept in separate cages or enclosures.
Trays	11. Any cage used for the keeping of birds, other than domestic birds intended for human consumption, shall have sliding or removeable trays at the bottom thereof and the perches (if any) shall be so arranged that droppings from birds on higher perches do not fall on birds on lower perches.
Shelter	12. Adequate shelter from sun or rain shall be provided for every animal in captivity.
Cages to be kept clean and ventilated	13. All cages or enclosures in which any animal is kept shall be maintained in clean condition and properly ventilated.
Food and water	14. Every animal in captivity shall have a constant supply of food and water.
Maimed or ailing animals	15. Every maimed or ailing animal shall be separately confined.
Animals not to be carried or suspended by wings or legs	16. No animal shall be carried or suspended by the wings or legs as to cause such animal to be inverted.
Rules to be exhibited	17. A copy of these Rules shall be exhibited conspicuously in every licensed place, and in any part of a market set aside for the sale of domestic poultry for food.
Inspection of licensed premises	18. The President, Municipal Veterinary Surgeon or any other person duly authorised in writing in that behalf by the President, shall at all reasonable times have free access for the purpose of inspection to any part of any licensed premises.

19. Any person committing a breach of these Rules shall be liable to a fine of one hundred dollars, or, in the case of a continuing offence, of twenty dollars for every day during which the offence continues. Penalty.

20. The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Bye-laws of the Municipality of George Town are hereby revoked. Revocation
